★ Merry Christmas! ★

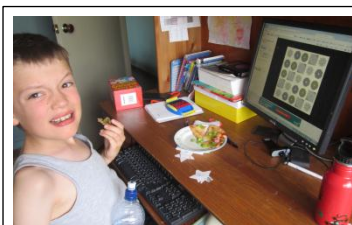

This year was much the same for Peter and Elizabeth... we are grateful that we have work we enjoy and that we are well. Peter just reminded Elizabeth that we did get a shipping container and water tank at Bald Rock, and that Elizabeth should be more thankful ☺.

Felix had a big year, starting with a new school where he tried new subjects like Chinese, music and swimming lessons and made new friends. At home he loves to learn new things on the computer, use the trampoline, do bushwalks and visit new places. He has refined the art of homework procrastination.

Myles also had a year of new experiences when he started at kindergarten. Like Felix, he enjoyed trying new activities, learning to swim, and making some new friends too. At home he likes to build with blocks and old boxes, dress up, play with neighbourhood kids and wrestle his brother.
