

Christmas Newsletter 2014

Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

– Isaiah 7:14

Hello! Here is the Meier family's Christmas newsletter for 2014 as written by Felix. Without any question, here is the news for this year.

Elizabeth got a new job in February, working full time. The new job is in the grains industry. It has been involving some travel around Australia and a week at Florence.

Peter has still been working in Meier IT like before, self-employed. We recently got a new dog called Chokito (more on that later). To Peter the dog is his personal trainer, accompanying him on regular bushwalks. He has been doing a great job looking after the house when Elizabeth is at work.

Felix is in Year 4 and moving into Year 5 next year. He has in his spare time been developing apps for Android (ignoring criticism from Myles at the same time). He named his app "Dog Training Stopwatch" as it is a stopwatch tailored to dog training. He felt a need for this app as he had tried timing training with the stopwatch on his Nexus 7 tablet but he felt a need for something better.

Myles is in Year 1 and moving into Year 2 in 2015. He got a hand me down PC but it broke weeks later and Felix is still trying to fix it. Myles is in the school choir for younger kids (Piccolo Voci). He went to Timezone and Skateaway this year for parties and enjoyed them equally. He loved the parties at places like the Mt Crosby Sportsground as well. He enjoys playing Mario games, Minecraft and reading magazines such as K-Zone, Mania and Krash.

Chokito is our new kelpie puppy. She enjoys exercising with the family on bushwalks. Myles enjoys playing with the dog but Myles's play is beginning to get too rough. Peter has built her a kennel with luxuries for her such as flyscreen windows, a locking door, and a hinged lid.
